DISEASES AND DEATHS.

Report of District Health Department for Past Week.

Mr. Gilbert Grosvenor, son of Prof. Grosvenor of Amherst College, and Miss Edith Bell, daughter of Prof. Alexander Graham Bell, were married in London yesterday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor will spend their honeymoon traveling, and will not return to America until some time in December. Prof. and Mrs. Bell, with the relatives of the bridegroom and the members of the family, were in London to attend the wedding. The bride was attended by Miss Marian Bell as maid of honor and Miss Helen Bell and Miss Crossman as bridesmaids. The bridal toilet was of white satin and point lace, the lace vell worn first by the bride's mother at her marriage.

A largely-attended noon wedding took The deaths in the District during the past week numbered 122, of which 73 were of white persons and 49 colored. The annual death rate was consequently 22.77 per thousand of the total population. Compared with the previous week the mortality from diseases of the brain and nervous system increased from 16 to 21, and that from consumption decreased from 20 to 17. There were 5 fatal cases of typhoid fever, 4 of whooping cough and 1 from diphtheria. Two deaths from violence occurred, 1 from

Two deaths from violence occurred, 1 from burns by fire and 1 suicide by gunshot.

At the close of last report there were 54 cases of diphtheria in quarantine. During the week 16 new cases developed, and 16 being discharged, left the same number—54—in isolation in 38 premises.

Of scarlet fever there were 24 cases in quarantine at the close of last report. During the week 16 new cases were reported and 6 were discharged, leaving 34 cases under observation in 24 premises.

A largely-attended noon wedding took piace at the Church of the Covenant today, when Rev. Dr. Hamlin united in marriage Miss Annabella Morgan, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth B. Morgan, and Dr. L. Fleet Luckett. The platform and reading desk were half hidden by the massing of large plants and flowers. The ushers who seated the guests were Dr. D'Arcy McGee, Dr. Lewis, Mr. Barnard and Mr. Langston Norwood. The bride was attended by Miss Lillian Lake as maid of honor, wearing a costume of light gray cloth, trimmed with panne velvet. A large black velvet hat completed the costume. The bride, who was escorted by her brother-in-law, Mr. James Flack, jr., of Baltimore, wore a stylish gown of light blue cloth and a hat to match. She carried a shower bouquet of violets. Mr. Elmore Selsom, uncle of the groom, was best man. Owing to a recent bereavement no reception followed the ceremony before the departure of Dr. and Mrs. Luckett for their wedding trip. The bride wore, going away, a traveling dress of violet cloth. The couple will be at home after November 15, at 1419 Rhode Island avenue. Mrs. Flack, the bride's sister; Mr. and Mrs. William Day and Miss Flaharty of Baltimore were on for the wedding.

Mrs. Calvin S. Brice, who is not in good beatth in parts have been seen to the complex of the large was a started between the part of the wedding. Funeral exercises over the remains of William Botts, a colored man who had reached the advanced age of ninety-eight years, were held this afternoon at Shiloh Baptist Chusch, 17th and L streets north-west. The deceased was born a slave in Virginia and had been a resident of this city for the past thirty years. Would Require Special Action.

Sister Mary Euphrasia, vice president requested the District Commissioners to extend the public main sewer from Edgeextend the public main sewer from Edge-wood through the property of W. D. Dav-idge and Trinity College to the north line of Michigan avenue, about 900 feet west of Harewood road, stating that a right of way would be donated. The Commission-ers find, however, that the proposed ex-tension would cost about $32,150, and that the funds would have to be supplied by a special appropriation, and they have so informed the sister.

Another wedding at the same church this evening will be that of Miss Lida Van Ness King and Mr. Albert Combs Thorn. Miss Annieta King will be maid of honor and Miss Mabel King, Miss Mabel Culver, Miss Estees and Miss Warlitz, bridesmaids. Mr. Columbus W. Thorn will be best man and Mr. F. W. von Dackenhausen, Mr. T. L. Stevens, Mr. Upton Edmondson, Mr. W. E. Pierson, Mr. George Dempsey and Mr. Thomas J. Fisher, jr., will be ushers.
